

THE CURRENT CRISIS IN EUROPE IS SERIOUSLY DISRUPTING INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

11th Lasaire Biennial
Athens seminar - 29 November 2013

WHAT SOLUTIONS AND WHAT ROLE CAN SOCIAL ACTORS PLAY TO PULL THROUGH ?

PROGRAM

9h - Registration

9h30 - Opening of the seminar

Welcome by Christos Polyzogopoulos, President of the Greek ESC

- Address by a Greek government representative and an opposition representative
- Presentation of the 11th Biennial and the Athens seminar by Roger Briesch, Europe Lasaire Delegate

The development of industrial relations in the current crisis – What changes in progress ?

- Nikolaos Skorinis, Vice President of the Greek ESC
- Thodoros Sakellaropoulos, Professor at the Panteion University
- Udo Rehfeldt, Researcher at IRES France : key trends from the European research : Social democracy under the strain of crisis

General debate

Conclusions - Anne-Marie Grozelier, General Secretary of Lasaire

12h30 - Lunch

14h00

How are the social stakeholders to be involved in the search for economic, social, industrial and financial solutions in the current crisis ?

Chair by Joël Decaillon, Executive Vice President of Lasaire

- Regina Goerner, IG Metall, Germany
- José Augusto Oliveira, CGTP-IN, Portugal

General debate

16h - Conclusions of the seminar

- Jean-Cyril Spinetta, President of Lasaire
- Georges Dassis, President of the EESC Workers' group

